THE COTTON CROP.

COMPILE OF STATISTICS BY THE COTTON EXCHANGE.

The Eastern Counties of North Carolina Report Serious Damage Done by the Late Storm.

NORFOLK, October 9.—The following is the crop report made by the Cotton Exchange from sixty replies from twenty-two counties in North Carolina and Virginia: Thirty-one report the weather generally more favorable during September. Twenty-nine say the weather was generally unfavorable owing to the rain and cold nights to September 20th. Sixteen reports from seven eastern North Carolina counties report serious damage, the result of the severe storms on the 17th of August, causing rust and shedding. Fourteen replies from the interior counties report favorably with little or no damage from rust or shedding. Sixteen reports from the western counties in North Carolina report the weather very poor. Thirty-five replies from interior counties also report poor fruiting. Nine replies from interior counties report the fruiting good. An average of 21 per cent. on the crop report, which has been picked, and an average yield compared with last year shows a decline of 22 per cent.

GALVESTON, Oct. 9.—The following is the Cotton Exchange report for September, condensed from one hundred and sixteen reports from eight of the three counties, the replies being of an average date of September 30th. One hundred and forty-five report the weather during September as favorable and forty-nine unfavorable. One hundred and twenty-two report the effect upon the plant during September as favorable and fifty-nine unfavorable. One hundred and fifty-one report no damage by worms; thirty some damage. Report some damage by rust. Nine report cotton brittle and retaining its squares; ninety-six report to the contrary. Eleven report one-quarter of the crop picked; seventeen report a third picked; seventy-three, one-half picked; forty, two-thirds picked; fifteen, three-quarters picked; and twelve, seven-eighths picked. In the yield of seed cotton per acre eleven report two hundred pounds; fifteen report three hundred pounds; six report three hundred and fifty pounds; twenty-five report five hundred pounds; twenty-two report six hundred pounds; seventeen report seven hundred pounds; sixteen report eight hundred pounds; three report nine hundred pounds; twelve report one thousand pounds; seven report one thousand two hundred pounds; and two report one thousand five hundred pounds. In the yield compared with last year, four reported less; eighteen reported as one-fourth less; thirty-one reported one-half less; forty-three reported a loss of one-half; fourteen reported by three-fourths; thirty-six say it is the same as last year; six say it is better; seven report it as better by a fourth; eight say it is a third better, and four report it as a hundred per cent better. A number of counties report the prospects for a top crop.

From Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 9—10 A. M.—One new case reported this morning. Archie Johnson, colored, died yesterday, since last night. Robert Johnson, colored, Shreve two miles south of the city; Mattie Kennedy, at Bunyin station; John Gawn and J. M. Williamson, the weather sultry and threatening.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 9—10 A. M.—Two more dead last evening. Eddie D. Bowman, at the mouth of Wolf river, and P. O'Keef, at the city hospital. The last named is said to have been a Catholic priest, but was not recognized by the brotherhood here, although they buried him. The members of the congregation of Memphis have telegraphed to the Howard Association at New Orleans to furnish assistance to the sick at Harrison Depot, Miss., as they are unable to reach the place owing to the strict quarantining regulations of Mississippi.

Afghanistan News.

LONDON, October 9.—A special dispatch from Afghanistan, reports that at one time during the attack of the 6th instant on the principal heights before Cabul two companies of Highlanders were opposed to two thousand Afghans. The British force, composed of 1,000 Highlanders were within twenty yards. The total Afghan force is said to have been eleven regiments with artillery and an immense number of hillmen. The British force, however, was beaten off, and Inspector Hanscom, a Private Detective Agent, who has been investigating the matter, has been relieved of the case.

Cutting's Disappearance.

The mystery attending the disappearance of Charles H. Cutting, the traveling salesman, September 12th, bids fair to remain unsolved, and Inspector Hanscom, a Private Detective Agent, who has been investigating the matter, has been relieved of the case.

Gossip for the Ladies.

So is the Story Told.
A fair head meekly bowed,
A shy glances coming after,
Voices not over loud,
And a low sweet laughter;
So is her story told,
In the cottage old,
Under the smoky rafters.

A fair maid, flushing red,
With an amorous, lowly feeling,
But shamed to bair her head
For all her lover's kneeling;
So is the story told,
Down 'mid the white and gold,
Under the painted ceiling.
—Blackwood's Magazine.

Miles, Marie and Louise d'Orzezko, two sisters, aged seventeen and eighteen years respectively, have just passed their bachelors degree with honors at the College of Science, Mathematics, and Sciences, they are the daughters of a Russian noble.

There are two lady lawyers in London who have a large legal business through the lawyers and yet are not allowed to plead in court. There is a vigorous effort being made to allow the all the privileges men lawyers are entitled to.

"A kiss," said young Charles, "is a noun we allow; But tell me, my dear, is it proper or common?"

Lovely Mary blushed deep and exclaimed, "Why, I vow, I think that kiss is both proper and common."

In the silk factories of Italy 120,428 women are employed, beside 26,976 in cotton, and 13,707 in tobacco factories. There are 9,177 manufacturing establishments of all kinds in the kingdom employing 392,948 laborers, 188,180 of whom are women.

A Cohen, a schoolteacher, has introduced new features in her school. When one of the girls misses a word, the boy who spells it gets permission to kiss her. As a result, the girls are becoming very poor spellers, while the boys are improving.

A young lady was endeavoring to impress upon the minds of her Sunday school class the importance of the punishment of Nebuchadnezzar, and when she said that for seven years he ate grass like a cow, she was astonished by a little girl, who asked, "Did he give milk?"

San Diego possessed a genuine heroine in a young lad named Mabel Lawrence. As a band of wild cattle were being driven through the streets one of them started for a child at play. The vaquero was drunk and tumbled from the horse as he attempted to turn the furious animal. Miss Lawrence, being unable to restrain the wild animal, ran down the animal, threw her shawl over its head and leading from the saddle, caught up the child, carrying it off in safety. It showed rare courage and presence of mind as well as expert horsemanship.

Nancy J. Pratt, of Iroquois county, Ill., received a letter off her farm, and received the saucy reply: "You, you ain't in any danger; I ain't huntin' old maids."

She abruptly turned, went into the house, came out with a gun, opened fire on the hunter and thereby saved the life of the child. With his hands and pistol: "Do you mean to murder me?" The farmer's wife answered, "Oh, you ain't in any danger; I ain't huntin' for fools," and she brought the gun again to her shoulder, while she chattered louder than before. Here the husband put in his appearance and told the fellow off the premises.

She met him in the park, and she blushed a scarlet red. For she knew he did observe her. By the way he held his head, But she hurried on the faster, For within her heart she felt, That she now more could strike him, Till she got a wider belt.

SALT RHEUM.

Life a burden from the sufferings caused by this terrible disease.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER—Gentlemen: Please accept my most grateful thanks for the great weighty favor you have received from the sale of our CUTICURA.

For the past eight or nine years I have been troubled with that dreadful disease, Salt Rheum.

For months I would be helpless, —my very life a burden to me.

I tried everything in the shape of medicine, both external and internal, but with no effect.

My health was in a terrible condition, the backs of them being all raw, and I thought I would try CUTICURA.

I tried it, and it worked wonders, if not thousands, who know of my case, among whom there may be some or similarly afflicted, and I can only earnestly advise him to give CUTICURA a trial.

Yours very truly,

A. D. HARRIS, Agent, S. R. R. Detroit Junction, Detroit, Mich., January, 30, 1879.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER—Gentlemen: Having been troubled for many years with the Tetter or Salt Rheum, I spent many a hard winter in trying to get rid of it. My CUTICURA, I tell you, God, my hands are well. I never had anything do me good like it.

You may put this in the paper and welcome, and I will do some poor suffering people good. This disease is well known here, having lived here about fifteen years and kept boards for a living, and I was always thinking of it, and was thinking of giving up altogether, until my own hands, and having a small family to take care of; but, oh! thank God, my hands are well again.

Yours truly,

E. L. BUCKLEY, Littleton, N. H., May 30, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 390 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and are for sale at all Druggists' stores. Medical.*TUTT'S PILLS*SYMPOMTS OF A TORPID LIVER.

Lack of Appetite, Bowels constipated, Pain in the Liver, especially in the upper part, Pain under the shoulder-blade, fullness after eating, with a disposition to sleep, of body or mind, Irritability of temper, Loss of appetite, especially when neglecting some duty, Weariness, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Doles generally over the right eye, Restlessness, with fitful dreams, highly colored Urine, IT IS TO BE WITNESSED THAT THESE DISEASES ARE UNREDUCED.

TUTT'S PILLS are specially adapted to such cases, one dose effects such a change of feeling as to astonish the sufferer.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be obtained. If a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, will be taken daily, night, gradually lessening the frequency of the doses, until a permanent movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

Dr. L. Guy Lewis, Fulton, Ark., says:

"After a practice of 25 years, I pronounce TUTT'S PILLS the best anti-spasmodic medicine ever made."

Rev. F. R. Osceola, New York, says:

"I have had Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach and Nervousness, and never had any medicine to do me much good, but TUTT'S PILLS. They are as good as represented."

Office 35 Murray Street, New York.

TUTT'S HAIR DYE.

GRAY HAIR OR WHITENESS changed to a Glossy black or dark brown, and instantly, and is permanent. It is applied with a brush, and is sent by express on receipt of $1.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

Are now sold in bottles, and introduced new features in her school.

When one of the girls misses a word, the boy who spells it gets permission to kiss her. As a result, the girls are becoming very poor spellers, while the boys are improving.

A young lady was endeavoring to impress upon the minds of her Sunday school class the importance of the punishment of Nebuchadnezzar, and when she said that for seven years he ate grass like a cow, she was astonished by a little girl, who asked, "Did he give milk?"

San Diego possessed a genuine heroine in a young lad named Mabel Lawrence. As a band of wild cattle were being driven through the streets one of them started for a child at play. The vaquero was drunk and tumbled from the horse as he attempted to turn the furious animal. Miss Lawrence, being unable to restrain the wild animal, ran down the animal, threw her shawl over its head and leading from the saddle, caught up the child, carrying it off in safety. It showed rare courage and presence of mind as well as expert horsemanship.

Nancy J. Pratt, of Iroquois county, Ill., received a letter off her farm, and received the saucy reply: "You, you ain't in any danger; I ain't huntin' old maids."

She abruptly turned, went into the house, came out with a gun, opened fire on the hunter and thereby saved
